Broker Direct Plc
Appointment of Chief Underwriting Officer

Broker Direct Plc is delighted to announce that it has appointed Chris Dixon as Chief Underwriting Officer with effect 3rd October 2016.

Chris will be responsible for all aspects of underwriting, initially focussing on growing the range of motor products, as well as introducing new ones.

Chris's appointment adds substantial strength and experience to Broker Direct's capabilities. His previous positions include:

- Head of Motor Division, Chaucer Insurance
- Technical Services & Pricing Manager, Non Standard Motor, Groupama
- Motor Technical Underwriting Controller, Independent Insurance
- Past Chairman of Lloyd's Motor Association.

Terry Stanley, Chief Executive of Broker Direct says "We are excited to welcome Chris on board and look forward to working together. Chris brings enormous experience and knowledge which will benefit Broker Direct as well as our capacity providers and carriers. He will also be looking for additional capacity to support our desire to grow."
